GRAVE PREPARATION INFORMATION

Vaults are required for burials (except cremains) and are the responsibility of the owner. Immanuel Cemetery does not sell vaults. There is a separate fee charged by the vault company for the opening and closing the grave. The current approximate cost is $1,500.00 or more depending on sub contractor charges and lot size. Additional fees may be charged if necessary for holidays, dirt removal etc. A fee of $650 is payable to the cemetery for services provided by the cemetery superintendent, establishing the gravesite and continual mowing and ground maintenance of the cemetery.

CREMATION BURIAL

One or two cremains can be buried in a single cremation lot. Vaults are not required in cremation lots. One stone or flat marker is allowed per lot. The cemetery charges a fee for the opening and closing the grave. The approximate cost is $700.00 (Additional fees may be charged if necessary for holidays, dirt removal etc.). If multiple cremains are interred at different times, the fee is charged each time the grave is open.

MONUMENTS , MARKERS AND CARE

Monuments and flat markers are the choice of the family and can be purchased directly from a monument company upon the design approval by a cemetery officer. The family retains ownership of the monument/marker and is responsible for the repairs, cleaning or resetting if required. Monument foundation preparation fees are determined by size of the stone. Mowing and maintenance of the grounds and chapel is provided by the cemetery. There is no perpetual individual gravesite care. Individual gravesite site maintenance is the responsibility of the lot owner.
